

Admissions and Higher Education

Growth and Success

Over the past years, our Mathematics Department has consistently seen a steady increase in admissions and graduates opting for higher education. The graph on the right highlights year-wise data, showcasing our commitment to academic excellence and student success. This upward trend underscores our dedication to nurturing talent and fostering academic growth

Admissions

Passed out

Opted for HE