Day 3 - The volunteers visited all the primary schools in the village and engaged in various activities with the school children, making them aware about the social activities and their importance. They played games and were awarded gifts. The volunteers also wall-painted educational images. There was a special cooking workshop on South Indian Cuisine by Mrs. KalpanaTripathi for the village ladies. College staff members Dr. A.S. Sama and Dr. M.P. Makwana also attended the activities.

Day 4 – The fourth day included various cleaning de-garbage activities and slogan painting on the walls. College staff members Dr. A.K. Anjariya, Dr. B.D. Parmar and Dr. B.K. Vaghela also attended the activities.

Day 5 – The fifth day was taken over by the faculty members of Economics department of the college. They collected census data of the village and conducted a survey of the demographics.

Day 6 – The volunteers were taken to trek Chandrua hill and shared their experiences with other teams

Thalassemia testing

24, 25, 26/07/2019

In accordance with the awareness programme of 17th July, the testing was completed on 24th, 25th and 26th July 2019 in cooperation with the Rotary club wallcity, Bhuj and the Redcross, Bhuj. Around 600 students were tested in this drive. Each was given proper certificate for either negative or positive. The positive students were given personal guidance for what he/she should keep in mind while getting married in the future.

Inauguration of Nashabandhi Saptah and rally

02/10/2019

The inauguration programme of Nashabandhi saptah was organised at our college. NSS and NCC cadets were present. In spite of a holiday, around 60 cadets were present in the programme. The superintendent of prohibition and excise Mr. Suresh Raininga along with his team came to college and sensitized students against drugs. After the programme a start was given to a rally from lalan college to the Jubille ground. All the cadets joined the rally and dispersed from the last point.
